

Visual Arts, research

Czech Republic/Japan

Feb. 13 - March 31

And also mixing with local my experiences and history by research. I think artist in residency is mixing idea, experiences and emotion between local and outsider.

That reason I still don't know which kind work, which kind of media and technique I m going to use. But it will be connect with this following image drawings.

First week lets talk possibility about your place and research local stuff.

Then will see what happen our artistic chemical reactions.
