

 Visual Arts/Curator
Canada
July 8 - 20, 2015

My interest in creating bridges between Canadian and international communities has also translated into teaching curatorial and collaborative practices, as well as invitations to speak about other strategic innovations in the contemporary art world, with recent presentations at Independent Curators International (New York) and Oxford University (UK) on Meet in the Middle|Stations of Memory and Migration Between Art and Film (2014-2016), a series of durational events that will stage a dialogue between leading Canadian, media artists and other notable figures in the art and film worlds.

For more information on this project, visit <http://www.mitmproject.info/>

This residency with ACROSS will further the key objectives of the next phase of this Meet in the Middle|Stations of Memory and Migration Between Art and Film (2014-2016) including the research and development and building of a film series and exhibition.